1.1 Environment Analyst

Environment Analyst (EA) is a publishing and business research organisation with a remit to track performance and opportunities within the environmental services sector, with a particular focus on the environmental & sustainability consulting (E&S) and the associated professional & technical support services market. Our two core products are:

Market Intelligence Service – Global

Market Intelligence Service – UK

These subscription services include many reports issued throughout the year, and around 60 competitor profiles. Additionally, they include environmental services business news (global and UK channels) and Insight Briefings.

For more information, please visit www.environment-analyst.com.

1.2 Report methodology and definitions

Our research methodology allows for continuous adjustment of market totals and market forecasts in light of the revised company performance data, economic growth projections, and policy and other announcements impacting on the fortunes of the environmental consultancy sector.

The latest data from the Top 100 firms profiled in this report is based on their figures for the latest audited fiscal year end, predominantly covering the 2020 calendar year.

Our definition of environmental sustainability consulting (E&S) is:

“The provision of specialist technical, management, risk and strategic advisory services to help organizations understand, manage and limit their impacts, to protect and enhance the environment and society in line with the UN SDGs”

1.3 Classification key:

Env	Environmental specialist	Specialist: E&S consulting revenue accounts for >50% of group revenue
MD	Mid-range multidisciplinary	Mid-range multidisciplinary: E&S consulting revenue accounts for <50% & group revenue is below US$3bn
LS	Large scale integrated/ MD professional services	Large scale integrated/ MD professional services: E&S consulting revenue accounts for <50% & group revenue is above US$3bn

1.4 Acknowledgements

We are very grateful to the environmental consultancy firms that have assisted us by completing our surveys, participating in email/phone/face-to-face interviews and verifying/commenting on their company profiles. Our thanks go to all who have helped.
